Lastly, in international news, the World Head of Family Sokeship Council's 21st Anniversary celebration held May 31st – June 1st in Orlando, Florida was a resounding success!.....I would like to thank 2 individuals in particular for their deeds this year. First, to long time friend, Grandmaster Ron Van Clief who stated in a 3/18/13 post on the WHFSC Facebook page that "The World Head of Family Sokeship Council is the best event in America. I hope to attend this May in Orlando, Thank you GM Frank Sanchez for everything. Your Brother, Ron Van clief" and to Grandmaster Rene Latosa who wasn't able to stay for the WHFSC banquet but came to do his seminar anyway because he promised that he would. Now, these are two very classy individuals and a sincere "THANK YOU" and deep bow of appreciation to both of you for being the honorable martial artists that you are - OSU!

"Thank you" to all of you who attended and to those of you who couldn't, please make your arrangements now to be at next years' event which will be announced soon. We can promise you a great time and you will be in the company of martial artists who have dedicated their lives to the martial arts – no “wannabes”, “posers” or those who “talk, but can’t do it on the mat”, just the “real deal”. All in harmony & all getting together to promote unity in the martial arts!

Also, “special thanks” to GM Richard & Linda Van Donk; and Dr. Germon Miller-Bey for their kindness in presenting me with their accolades and gifts during the banquet. It was deeply and humbly appreciated.....
