The book is 645 pages long and is a great follow-up to Grandmaster Don Warrener's historical book on the Council - still available from Rising Sun Productions of California and on Amazon.comGrandmaster George Alexander who now resides in New York has a new book that he is working on called "Seeking the Way". An excerpt that was previewed from his newsletter contains mentions of WHFSC members, Professor Edwin Maley, Dr. Richard Kim (deceased), GM Michael DePasqule Sr. (deceased), GM Peter Siringano (deceased), GM Florendo Visitacion (deceased), Professor George Kirby, Professor John DeNora (deceased), Professor Miguel Ibarra, Professor Wally Jay (deceased), GM Moses Powell (deceased), GM Ed Parker (deceased), GM Peter Urban (deceased), GM Don Nagle (deceased), GM George Mattson (deceased), GM Bill Wallace, GM Chaka Zulu, GM Joe Hess, GM Ron Van Clief and Master Jackie Chan. He also mentions his near stardom when another WHFSC member, GM Ric Black (former publisher of Martial Arts Business Magazine and the first individual to hold a martial arts trade show in Las Vegas in 1990) presented his long time friend, GM Ed Parker with a video that George had made for ESPY TV featuring the Chinto form & its relevant bunkai. Long story – short, GM Ed Parker was suitably impressed with the video and offered George a role in a movie he was making – one of 3 lined-up with Paramount Pictures at the time. Unfortunately, Grandmaster Ed Parker passed

The new Guam Museum

Grandmaster Vincent Lyn

In the 1970s, yours truly was one of the first contemporary singer/ recording artists to emerge from the Island of Guam singing under the professional name of “Frankie” Sanchez. I am even mentioned in the Island’s official on-line website called Guampedia at <http://guampedia.com/chamorro-music-2/> . Imagine my surprise when I learned that a station in New Jersey, WFMU had me on their playlist in November of last year for a song I recorded called “Do You Remember Guam?” (playlist at <http://wfmj.org/playlists/shows/48306>). Now, I am proud to say that my picture, gi, letters of acknowledgement and books on me as the Founder of Guam’s first martial art system, San-Jitsu have been accepted for display by the new Guam Museum which will have its official grand opening in 2014!..... Also in the music genre, jazz recording artist and Kung-Fu expert extraordinaire, Grandmaster Vincent Lyn reports that he’s been invited back to do a performance again at Carnegie Hall in New York City on Friday, December 13th at 8:00pm. Prof. Gary Dill Grandmaster Vincent Marchetti, Head of the WHFSC's Associate Membership Department is complaining that most of the student members of that department are his! He would like to see the Associate membership grow with other members students, as well. The idea is to perpetuate the Council with young blood so that the Council continues to sustain itself in the future when the present membership is long gone....Per our recent Annual Meeting, there will be no exclusivity between the instructor and student where the student's membership ceases once he leaves his instructor. For more information, please contact Vince at vmarchetti@kearnymartialarts.com& lastly in International news, W.A.S.C.A. under Grandmaster Alfredo Bassani will have its Annual meeting on April 12th, 13th & 14th in Italy. The "Return of the Dragon II" event which was scheduled to go on at that time has been postponed according to U.S. Italian Martial Arts Alliance Head, Master Alfredo Torella to Winter because of the bad economy there. We will keep you posted when new information becomes available. Professor Gary Dill will be Heading the "Challenge" competition in honor of the late great Bruce Lee once the date is set.
