Grandmaster Marty Manuel

Grandmaster Chaka Zulu

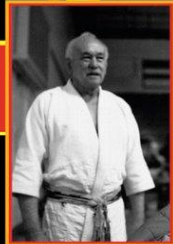

Professor John Chambers

As we begin this newsletter, we are sad to announce the passing of one of New Jersey's most beloved martial artists, GRANDMASTER MARTY MANUEL, Founder of MODERN BUJUTSU RYU. According to his student, Sensei Linda Reim, Marty passed away quietly at his home in New Jersey on September 30th. The beloved Grandmaster who suffered from a rare neurological disease that left him a quadriplegic, never let it deter him from teaching. His friendly smile & presence will be missed at our yearly gatherings. Marty's burial is set to take place in Maryland where he will be interred in the family crypt along side his Mother & Grandmother.....GRANDMASTER CHAKA ZULU of the U.S. Virgin Islands gave quite a scare to everyone when he was rushed to the hospital complaining of not feeling well, the Founder of ZUJITSU, according to a post on Face Book by his Wife, Zosia Gorbaty, is now at home recuperating & doing well. Please take good care of yourself, CHAKA! Another member of ours', PROFESSOR JOHN CHAMBERS – 9th dan in the Korean art of YUDO from Florida is home recovering from spine fusion surgery. The good Professor is telling friends to keep from e-mailing jokes until he is abit better as it apparently “hurts” when he laughs!.....

On March 26th – 27th, 2011, new Honorary Member, LESLEE KUFFERATH, daughter of our deceased member and my former teacher, the late PROFESSOR SIG KUFFERATH will be hosting a seminar symposium in honor of PROFESSOR SIG's 100th Birthday. The event which will take

We are happy to report that the recent WORLD MARTIAL ARTS GAMES held in Las Vegas was won by our own MASTER SCOTT SONNON, who did a "clean sweep" for the U.S. Team by winning a Gold Medal in his weight division for Submission Grappling with Silver overall. Gold in his weight division for Sport Jiu-Jitsu with Bronze overall; and a Gold Medal in Mixed Martial Arts with Gold overall. All at 40 years of age and over opponent's younger and in some cases much heavier than him! – which goes to show that age is never a factor when experience, skill and fortitude come into play! He dedicated his wins to his Instructor and our Representative from Russia, GENERAL (GRANDMASTER) ALEXANDER RETYUNSKIH – CONGRATULATIONS, SCOTT on your outstanding accomplishment! & “thank you” for the kind words as well regarding myself.
